A Jesuit Education

As a prospective family to St. John's Jesuit High School and Academy, we want to share with you all that is important about a Jesuit education. In the United States alone, there are 59 Jesuit-sponsored high schools and 28 colleges and universities. No other school in northwest Ohio has the connections that the young men at St. John's Jesuit have. We are happy you are considering to be a part of this network! We undoubtedly graduate students bound by an education experience rich in tradition and rooted in a Christ-centered environment. The purpose of any of Jesuit-sponsored school is to give young men and women the tools they need to answer the question, What more does God want from me? It's this question that drives our mission as a school to form men for others. In his first year, your son will learn about the founder of the Jesuits – the Society of Jesus – St. Ignatius Loyola. Ignatius, sought God in all things. As a freshman, your son will have a deeper understanding of this guiding principle. This marks the first step to being Jesuit educated. In four short years your son will grow intellectually, in his faith, and in his commitment to create a more just world.

Thank you for your commitment to or interest in St. John's Jesuit High School and Academy. We are proud of our past, but more importantly, very excited about our future! We are happy to share the Ignatian spirituality that thrives here at SJJ with parents, alumni, friends and students. If you wish to learn more, don't hesitate to contact Mr. Greg Richard, VP of Ignatian Identity at St. John's Jesuit at 419-720-0773.

Teacher Spotlight: Phil Anthony, Freshman Spanish I

Mr. Phil Anthony teaches Spanish I. In Spanish I, students explore concepts through language acquisition focusing on communicative lessons, grammar (implicit and explicit instruction), writing and dialoging. When asked about his favorite aspect of teachers, Mr. Anthony quickly responded, "There is nothing more rewarding than seeing a struggling student achieve a success in the class due to dedication." At SJJ, channeling a high energy classroom environment is key to a successful learning environment. Mr. Anthony admits he tries to foster and not limit the energy in his classroom to keep students engaged.

In addition to teaching, Mr. Anthony is one of the faculty advisors to the Office of Student Life. In this role, he plans and executes enrichment activities for the student body such as Battle of the Bands, Student Council, Spirit Squad and many more. "The community that we have at SJJ is what I like most about teaching here. Our commitment to education at SJJ transcends the confinement of a classroom. The connections that our students build and foster here will stay with them forever."
